Bereavement Services Team Lead: Cheshire

Reporting to: CBUK Director of Bereavement Services
(Day to day line management: CBUK North Development Lead)

Hours: 37.5 hours per week

Salary: £30,500 p.a.

Base: Runcorn, Cheshire

JOB PURPOSE

To lead the continued development, co-ordination, provision and evaluation of a service that ensures families and professionals can access high quality bereavement support in situations where a baby or child has died, or where children or young people are bereaved, with specific responsibility for leading the Cheshire Family Bereavement Service team.

CBUK’s Bereavement Services comprise:

- A national Support & Information Line providing telephone support, information and guidance to families and professionals
- An interactive website with information with online discussion forum for families
- Family Bereavement Support Services in a variety of locations across the UK providing a range of responses including telephone support and guidance on particular areas of concern for families either pre-bereavement, in the immediate aftermath of a death or in the longer term; a booked-call telephone support service; individual, couple and family support sessions; support groups for parents experiencing baby and child death; a family group programme for children bereaved of someone important in their life; Young People’s Advisory Groups, a youth service for young people aged 11-25 and liaison with the school and other staff working with child/young person to ensure holistic support
- National support for families bereaved in particular circumstances: e.g. forces families, families bereaved by homicide
- Collaborative working with other agencies to provide bereavement support in a variety of geographic locations across the UK
The ethos of CBUK’s Bereavement Services is:

- To provide support that encourages open communication within the family, both pre and post bereavement, and fosters resilience in bereaved children and young people
- To provide information for bereaved families about grief and help them understand some of the feelings they may experience
- To find ways of remembering the person who has died, whilst coping with the challenge of adjusting to living a changed life
- To provide families with the opportunity to meet others with similar experiences in a safe, non-threatening environment
- To provide support for those coming into contact with bereaved families in the course of their work, including CBUK staff

KEY WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

- CBUK Director of Bereavement Support and Education
- CBUK North Development Lead
- CBUK Cheshire Bereavement Services Team
- CBUK Chief Executive
- All CBUK departments
- CBUK Volunteers
- Referral agencies, especially statutory service providers in health and education

PRINCIPAL RESPONSIBILITIES

To lead the development, coordination, provision and evaluation of a service in Cheshire:

- To uphold the ethos of CBUK’s bereavement service in what is offered to families
- To work within national and CBUK guidelines and policies ensuring that practice is standardised, ethical and safe for families, staff and volunteers. This includes child protection, complaints and grievance procedures
- To continue to maintain and further develop CBUK’s services as a source of advice and support for families and professionals across Cheshire and the wider region
- To support the North Development Lead in the selection, training and support of staff and volunteers for the Bereavement Service in Cheshire
- To lead the Bereavement Service in Cheshire in providing a programme of individual and family support sessions, family group programmes for children bereaved of someone important in their life, a Young People’s Advisory Group programme, school liaison, and support services for parents bereaved of a baby or child. It is anticipated that the post holder will directly support a significant number of families
- To work with the CBUK Director of Bereavement Support and Education, North Development Lead and CBUK fundraising and communication team to secure funding for the further development of the service
- To work with CBUK Executive Manager in managing the service premises on a day to day basis.
• To liaise with agencies external to CBUK as appropriate, sharing expertise, information, skills and resources effectively, ensuring the widest possible area of need is met
• To empower other professionals offering advice, resources and support through joint working, when working with bereaved parents and children in Cheshire
• To monitor and evaluate all aspects of CBUK’s Cheshire bereavement services
• To participate in supervision both individually and as part of the Cheshire team
• To provide line-management and supervision, as appropriate, to the Cheshire team, including volunteers
• To maintain and improve own professional competence and accountability
• To assist the CBUK Director of Bereavement Support and Education and North Development Lead in the strategic and operational development of the service in Cheshire, in response to identified need.
• To deliver bereavement awareness sessions to local organisations and to facilitate workshops as part of CBUK’s national training programme, and support CBUK’s consultancy services, as appropriate.
