BANG! The creation of a Bereavement Advisory Network Group to develop and advocate for bereavement support for children and young people

Programme

A young person's experience

Child Bereavement UK's conferences always include the voice of bereaved families whose experience is important in helping professionals to understand and meet their needs. We will be joined by a young person from our Cumbria Young Person's Advisory Group to talk about their experience.

Workshops

We will be holding two workshop sessions during this conference. Please number your workshop preferences upon booking. Places will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.

1

Creative activities for bereaved children and young people

2

Responding to a sudden death within a school
– how a bereavement policy can help

3

Children's fears in a daunting world

4

Postvention - support after suicide

Please note: Speakers, sessions and workshops for this conference are subject to change.
